A LABOR DAY PARADE

The cutters and trimmers, led by the famous marine band.

Big Picnic at Eastern Schenectady Park—Speech of Mayor Larowe—Concert by the Band A Pleasure of the Day.

Yesterday was Labor Day throughout the United States. The principal celebration at Baltimore was a picnic at the Eastern Schenectady Park projected by the Clothing Cutters and Trimmers Association of Baltimore. The location was about one mile and a half from the city, and the company of organized labor having arranged to participate in the civic parade of the September exaction. The Clothing Cutters and Trimmers' Association is an organization of the members of the clothing trades in the city, and the picnic was their fourth annual outing. Many of the members brought their families, and entertained and刷新ed with their families. The officers are: J. A. Bauman, president; C. E. Egan, vice president; M. J. O’Rourke, secretary-treasurer. The platform was erected in the center of the grounds, and the speeches were made by Mayor Larowe, the Bishop of Baltimore, and J. A. Bauman, as emcees. The procession was led by the Chilled Detroit, with the Sun’s wagon in attendance. TheClipper’s wagon was led by the Chilled Detroit, with the Sun’s wagon in attendance. The Clipper’s wagon was led by the Sun’s wagon, and the Sun’s wagon was led by the Chilled Detroit. The procession passed through the streets of Baltimore, to the northwestern part of the city, and then returned to the park. The procession arrived at the park about 3 p.m., and the picnic was enjoyed by all.

The weather was warm and sunny, and the park was filled with people. The food was plentiful, and the refreshments were enjoyed by all. The speeches were made by Mayor Larowe, the Bishop of Baltimore, and J. A. Bauman, as emcees. The speeches were inspiring, and the audience was enthusiastic. The procession was led by the Chilled Detroit, with the Sun’s wagon in attendance. The Clipper’s wagon was led by the Chilled Detroit, with the Sun’s wagon in attendance. The Clipper’s wagon was led by the Sun’s wagon, and the Sun’s wagon was led by the Chilled Detroit. The procession passed through the streets of Baltimore, to the northwestern part of the city, and then returned to the park. The procession arrived at the park about 3 p.m., and the picnic was enjoyed by all.

The weather was warm and sunny, and the park was filled with people. The food was plentiful, and the refreshments were enjoyed by all. The speeches were made by Mayor Larowe, the Bishop of Baltimore, and J. A. Bauman, as emcees. The speeches were inspiring, and the audience was enthusiastic. The procession was led by the Chilled Detroit, with the Sun’s wagon in attendance. The Clipper’s wagon was led by the Chilled Detroit, with the Sun’s wagon in attendance. The Clipper’s wagon was led by the Sun’s wagon, and the Sun’s wagon was led by the Chilled Detroit. The procession passed through the streets of Baltimore, to the northwestern part of the city, and then returned to the park. The procession arrived at the park about 3 p.m., and the picnic was enjoyed by all.