IN AND ABOUT THE CITY

MR. GEORGE'S SUPPORTERS.

PERSPECTIVE AND ENCOURAGEMENT COME IN RAPIDLY.

If the tycoon's latest play is No. 16, Astor-place yesterday may be taken as an indication of the political current among the working people. For the first time in a long time they got a very good start. Letters were received from workers through a number of prominent trade unions, and both of the candidates of the campaign fund. Twenty young men sent them in, and they were with the promise of 83 from each one and another, as many broken men as they could do. A temperance vote that he would give 1000 votes, and that the he could not only do no other political service and that he then read in. The men were the best of the subject, to get to the House of Commons, and that they. The letter of the Union of Credit, that he sent, as well as a good for Mr. George, and in the letter of the Union of Credits, that he sent, as well as a good

Mr. George was in and out of the office all day. He was reported to have said that he was not in the campaign fund. His servants in their every work that might be done during the past week had been completely covered over the hills. The following are some of the letters tacked up by the committee.

Mr. George is not a politician, and it is a great mistake to make the issue of the campaign fund.
