HENRY GEORGE'S HOPES.

WHAT HE THINKS ABOUT HIS CHANCES.

HE WOULD NOT BE SURPRISED IF HE GOT $90,000.

VOTES—NO PLACED GIVEN TO ABORT.

The supporters of H. G. have learned by the result of the canvass in Clinton Hall on Sunday afternoon that they had not the slightest chance of success. This is not, however, at all surprising. It is not at all necessary that the combination of the forces for George should be very great in order for him to take the city this year. The general feeling of the business men of the city is that the labor movement is strong enough to demand the city's support. This is not surprising. The labor movement has been slowly gathering strength for years. It is now strong enough to demand the city's support.

The Insurrectionary Party will probably do well in the city. There is no reason to suppose that they will not do well in the city. The Insurrectionary Party is strong enough to demand the city's support. The Insurrectionary Party has been slowly gathering strength for years. It is now strong enough to demand the city's support.

The Insurrectionary Party will probably do well in the city. There is no reason to suppose that they will not do well in the city. The Insurrectionary Party is strong enough to demand the city's support. The Insurrectionary Party has been slowly gathering strength for years. It is now strong enough to demand the city's support.

The Insurrectionary Party will probably do well in the city. There is no reason to suppose that they will not do well in the city. The Insurrectionary Party is strong enough to demand the city's support. The Insurrectionary Party has been slowly gathering strength for years. It is now strong enough to demand the city's support.

The Insurrectionary Party will probably do well in the city. There is no reason to suppose that they will not do well in the city. The Insurrectionary Party is strong enough to demand the city's support. The Insurrectionary Party has been slowly gathering strength for years. It is now strong enough to demand the city's support.

The Insurrectionary Party will probably do well in the city. There is no reason to suppose that they will not do well in the city. The Insurrectionary Party is strong enough to demand the city's support. The Insurrectionary Party has been slowly gathering strength for years. It is now strong enough to demand the city's support.