LABOR, ON MAY DAY, SEES DOOM OF WAR

Speakers Oppose Armies, but Favor Relentless Fight for Rights of Toilers.

40,000 WORKERS IN PARADE

Osaka, May 15—Osaka workers on Tuesday, President of the March and May Meetings.

One of the grandest May Day demonstrations of the year was held here Tuesday under the auspices of the Osaka labor committee.

The march, which started from the center of the city and ended at the main street, was a sight to behold. The streets were packed with workers, and the cheers and slogans were deafening. The marchers carried banners and flags, and their spirits were high.

The organizers of the march were sure that their demonstration would be a success, and it was. The workers showed their solidarity and their determination to fight for their rights.

The Osaka workers are not alone in their struggle. All over Japan, workers are fighting for their rights. They are demanding better working conditions, higher wages, and an end to exploitation.

The Osaka workers are confident that they will succeed in their fight. They are determined to keep up the fight until their demands are met.

MANY STRIKES BEGIN AND END

In other parts of the country, new strikes are taking place. Workers in the northernmost city of Sendai are striking for better working conditions.

In the capital city of Tokyo, workers in the textile industry are on strike for higher wages.

The workers are not alone in their struggle. The farmers, too, are striking for better living conditions. They are demanding an end to the feudal system, which has kept them in poverty.

The workers and farmers are united in their struggle. They are determined to fight for a better future. They are not afraid of the power of the rich and the powerful. They know that they are right.
