TWO DESPERATE PLOTS

Monarchists and Anarchists Planned Revolution in France.

EUROPE TREMBLES FOR TODAY

Military Precautions to Quickly Suppress Any Outbreak Attending Workingmen's Demonstrations—Principal Cities of Germany Paralyzed by Troops.

Paris, April 30.—La France (Republican) confirms the report of the presence of a monarchist plot to overthrow the republic. A warrant has been issued for the arrest of the Duke de Lorraine, who has fled to Louisiana, according to the Riot Act.

The authorities throughout France are preparing energetic measures to prevent any disturbance to-morrow. The police continue to arrest Anarchists in this city, who are suspected of being connected with the plot to inaugurate a revolution by means of dynamite.

M. Molacq, private secretary to the Marquis de More, who was arrested on suspicion of being implicated in the conspiracy to proclaim the Duke of Orleans King of France, has been discharged from custody.

Two cavalry regiments have been sent to Vincennes from Fontainebleau and Neuilly.

While policemen were trying to arrest the Italian Anarchists who had been arrested at St. Jacques de-Thy, the Italians threw knuckledusters to defend themselves. A scuffle ensued, and the police using clubs, at least three were finally arrested.

Six of the Anarchists arrested yesterday had in his possession a manifesto written in Greek that he intended, with friends, to send to bishops and saints. This revelation of the number of workingmen in the banks has caused consternation. The Labor Exchange is guarded by police.

In addition to the regular Paris garrison, which will be held in the city to-morrow, in readiness for service, eight cavalry regiments have been placed at the disposal of the government. At least six of the troops will be stationed at the palace of Elysee, President Carnot's residence, in the legislative chambers, and at other points where trouble is likely to occur. There will be no interdiction of the authorities of street traffic throughout the city. Miners of workingmen on the streets will not be allowed.

Bengal, April 30.—The most extraordinary precautions are being taken by the German government to meet any emergency which may arise in the capital and other principal cities of the empire. The parades are being held through the streets, and in the outlying districts they are being exercised in street drill and riot tactics.

POSBAND, April 30.—Ball cartridges have been supplied to the various detachments of troops at the capital, and this city for the repression of possible rioting on May 1. Every person with his fires barred, and every train of cars is side tracked, ready to move reinforcements were ever required on the instant a call is made.

LONDON, April 30.—The police will to-morrow prohibit the assemblies along any other route than the one already specified.

MADRID, April 30.—Anarchism prevails in the provinces, and many families are leaving their homes. No arrest, however, is expected. The government has issued a proclamation calling the attention of the populace to the necessity of obeying other laws regulating riots. An Anarchist committee of the city has eluded the workingmen to assemble in a local music hall.

A UST E R D E M B E R, April 30.—The municipal council has forbidden a procession on May Day. The Socialist association and speeches in Flancius Hall. A strike is considered improbable.

BRUSSELS, April 30.—The alarm is subsiding. Labor journals enjoin workmen to reserve order. Twenty-thousand at Konigratte have decided to work to-morrow.
