DEFEAT OF THE COMMUNISTS

MANNHEIM AND JARRES SHOVED UP.

BERLIN Dispatch. - The Prussian Communists who rounded up some of their fellows at Mannheim and Jarres on suspicion of plotting opposition to the Government, were compelled on Monday to dismiss the charges and surrender the prisoners.

The retaining of the prisoners at Mannheim and Jarres was considered as evidence that the Prussian Government was preparing to take a stand against the Communists, and that a conflict was impending.

The authorities, however,
are now satisfied that the charges are without foundation, and that the prisoners are to be released.

The retainer of the prisoners was met with strong opposition from the inhabitants of the villages, who were in favor of the detaining of the prisoners for purposes of political repression.

The authorities, however,
charges are without foundation,
be released.
