---Cause of the War, Etc.

Pike's Peak, July 6.—Asher Lee's life was claimed last evening in the wild and bloody fight between the workmen and the detectives.

Asher Lee was a Colorado man, and an ex-soldier. He was a member of the Colorado Works police, and was killed in the fight. He was killed in the struggle at the mine. He was the first man to be killed, and was the first man to be shot. He was a man of strength, and was well known for his bravery. He was a man of courage, and was always ready to fight for his rights. He was a man of integrity, and was always true to his word. He was a man of honor, and was loved by all who knew him.

The battle was fought at the mine, and was a fierce and bloody one. The workmen and the detectives were well armed, and fought with much determination. The workmen were led by a man named Barlow, who was a member of the Colorado Works police. He was a man of strength, and was well known for his courage. He was a man of integrity, and was always true to his word.
He was a man of honor, and was loved by all who knew him.
